Denny Barney (R)

Maricopa County District 1 Supervisor

Denny is a sixth generation native of Arizona and lives in Gilbert with his wife Nichole, and their four children. Denny has a strong business background and is currently a principal in ARCUS Private Capital Solutions, a specialized realty investment and finance company. He is also the CEO of Landmark Companies, a private investment company with focus on real estate investment and development. Denny studied political science in college with a degree in International Relations and a minor in Japanese. He received his law degree from ASU and is admitted to practice in state of Arizona.

In addition to his business endeavors, Denny is a current Board Member of Mesa United Way, serving as past chairman for their annual campaign. He has also served as a Commissioner for Maricopa County Planning and Zoning, is a former member of Greater Phoenix Leadership, and is a Past President of the Mesa Baseline Rotary club. Denny's past board service includes East Valley Partnership, United Food Bank, Arizona board of American Indian Services, Commission on Excellence in Education and various Banner Health Advisory boards. Denny enjoys serving in the community and above all else, enjoys spending time with his family.
